Plaintiff filed this employment discrimination case in South Carolina state court on September 16, 2011. [Entry #1-1]. Defendant removed the case to this court on November 9, 2011. [Entry #1]. Before the court is Plaintiff's failure to comply with a court order dated April 26, 2012. [Entry #21]. All pretrial proceedings in this case were referred to the undersigned pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(g) (D.S.C.). Because this is a dispositive matter, this Report and Recommendation is entered for review by the district judge.

On April 25, 2012, Plaintiff's counsel moved to be relieved pursuant to Plaintiff's desire to terminate the attorney-client relationship and seek alternative representation. [Entry #19]. The court granted the motion on April 26, 2012, and ordered Plaintiff to notify the court of the identity of her new counsel or, alternatively, whether she intended to proceed pro se by May 31, 2012. [Entry #21]. The court attached to its order a notice regarding representation to be completed and returned to the Clerk of Court by the May 31, 2012 deadline. Id. The order notified Plaintiff that failure to file the notice within the allotted time may result in her case being dismissed for failure to prosecute. Id. at 2. As of the date of this Report and Recommendation, Plaintiff has failed to comply with the court's order.

Based on the foregoing, it is recommended that this action be dismissed with prejudice, in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). The Clerk is directed to send this Report and Recommendation to Plaintiff at her last known address.

If Plaintiff complies with the April 26, 2012 order within the time set for filing objections to this Report and Recommendation, the Clerk is directed to vacate this Report and Recommendation and return the file to the undersigned for further handling. If, however, no objections are filed, the Clerk shall forward this Report and Recommendation to the district judge for disposition.

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.
